

House Resolution No. 2082

Whereas, it is with utmost respect that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their daily legislative endeavors in order to recognize those Show-Me State youths who truly embody the concept of "Outstanding Missouri Student" through their deeds and achievements; and

Whereas, Maggie Brown of Moberly, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a student at Moberly High School in the Moberly School District; and

Whereas, on Wednesday, May 5, 2004, Maggie Brown will meet with state legislators in the Missouri House of Representatives to receive well-deserved honors and accolades for the exemplary role she has performed in Missouri as a student leader; and

Whereas, Maggie Brown has successfully challenged herself through a rigorous series of classes which have resulted in her attaining a 4.0 grade point average and being ranked number one in her graduating class; and

Whereas, Maggie Brown has developed and maintained an exceptional reputation for her leadership and activity with Special Olympics Missouri, a stellar organization which provides competitive sports venues for a wide range of handicapped individuals who proudly prove that support and determination are the true path to achievement; and

Whereas, known as the "Northeast Area Fireball" by the Basketball Games Management Team, Maggie Brown focused her volunteer efforts on garnering sufficient donations of food so that Special Olympics was able to serve free lunches to all one hundred fifty of the athletes and coaches competing in basketball; and

Whereas, Maggie Brown is the 2003 Statewide Volunteer of the Year for Special Olympics Missouri, a volunteer with the Moberly golf tournament fund-raiser, and a presenter at the South Central Conference of Special Olympics;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Maggie Brown as an "Outstanding Missouri Student" and to extend to her this legislative body's most heartfelt welcome to the state capitol on May 5, 2004, for special recognition as a guest in the House Chamber; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of "Outstanding Missouri Student" Maggie Brown of Moberly, Missouri.
